

As a licensed amateur radio operator, I am greatly concerned about radio interference from Broadband over Power Line. Reports from locales where such a system has been implemented are frightening in their implications for radio reception of all kinds and I urge you to reject any such applications until adequate safeguards are implemented. Thank you.